PREPARING FOR YOUR VISIT

Only trained personnel conduct guided tours.

Pre-booked guided tours are available with Mandarin, Cantonese, German, French, Japanese or Dutch speaking guides are on request - 48 hours advance notice is required. Please contact the house in advance of your visit to discuss your booking.

Olveston is a house museum containing the original possessions of the Theomin Family. We ask visitors to take care inside the house and remind visitors not to touch items on display.

To prevent damaging the wooden floors and original floorcoverings inside the house visitors are asked to refrain from wearing stiletto heel shoes while on tour.

Out of respect for other members of your group we ask visitors to refrain from using cameras or mobile phones during tours.

HOURS & TOURS

Olveston is open 9am - 5pm, 7 days (closed Christmas Day).

Six 1-hour public tours commence daily at: 9.30 am, 10.45 am, 12 noon, 1.30pm, 2.45pm and 4pm. (reservations are recommended).

The gardens at Olveston are open to the public free of charge.
